ANNOUNCEMENTS

ELO Schedule

Go Cowboys!

Attention all CCHS Students: Are you looking for an awesome way to develop your skills and get valuable experience, find an amazing career. Many internships are awaiting you right here in Prineville. Some of the available internships are: Chef/Teacher Assistant, Event Coordination/Office Administration/Marketing, Office Assistant, Social Media and Website Monitor. There are also many more in the Central Oregon area. Stop by Mr. Cochran's class to get more details and get signed-up.

College Tours: Mrs. Kingsbury in the Future Center will be taking any student interested in touring Oregon State University and Linn Benton Community College in Corvallis on Wednesday, May 29th. Sign-up in the Future Center, permission slips are due by Friday, May 24th.

Sports Writing Class: Do you like sports? Do you enjoy watching events and telling your friends about it? Do you have opinions about teams and players? Then join the sports writing class! In the class, you will learn to write game stories, columns, feature articles and blogs. The class counts as an English credit, will help you start a possible career in journalism, and will be interesting and fun. Go talk to Mrs. Kasberger or Mr. Kessi in the Counseling Center to sign-up this week!

Summer Basketball: Anyone interested in playing basketball next year, there will be a meeting in Mr. Mumm's room tomorrow, Thursday at 12:20 pm.

Keep it Real: The LAST session of "Keeping It Real" tonight at 5:30 pm at the COCC Open Campus. Please come & enjoy free food, free drink, good conversation & sage advice.

LINK CREW: If you think you have what it takes to be a good role model and mentor to the freshmen in the 2019-20 school year, pick up a Link Crew application from Mr. Oelkers in room 111, Mr. Lowenbach in room 112, or Mrs. Lowenbach in room 219. Link Crew provides many opportunities to develop leadership skills and to make CCHS a welcoming place for everyone. We need you! You must be a current sophomore or junior and applications will be accepted through May 31st.

COCC Housing: Seniors who are planning to live on campus at COCC next year have the opportunity for a housing award! The COCC Housing and Residence Life Team has launched a new incentive for any student that has applied or plans to apply for COCC and on campus housing this fall. Any student that applies for housing by June 30th will be eligible to receive one of three $1000 housing awards. To be eligible, you need to have fully completed the housing application (as in signed the contract and paid the down payment to reserve your room) by June 30th. You then are eligible for the housing award! Need help applying? Go see Mrs. Kingsbury in the Future Center.

Seniors: Do you need help filling out your 2019/2020 FASFA or your Oregon Promise for a community college? Are you almost done but you're having trouble completing it? Has your FASFA been denied? Don't even know where to start? Come to the Future Center today during ELO and Mrs. Kingsbury will help you get it finished!

Book Club: Do you love a good mystery novel? Do you love to eat snacks and have fun? If you answered yes then consider joining a book club with Mrs. Lowenbach and Mrs. Kasberger. We will be reading "The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time". Meetings will be Tuesdays in May from 3:25-4:25. Sign up with Mrs. Lowenbach or Mrs. Kasberger.

Tuck, Everlasting: Have you ever thought about what it would mean to live forever? Come see drama's performance of Tuck, Everlasting on Thursday, May 17th at 6 P.M. Admission is $1 for all ages! This whimsical tale tells the story of Winnie Foster and her encounter with the Tuck family in the village of Treegap. See what happens when the power of immortality almost falls in the wrong hands. A big thank you to graphic design student Hailey Coffman and Mrs. Struck for designing the poster for the show!
